To whom it may concern,

We received a request for information and duplicate paperwork for the wild horse you have acquired that has a Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Freezemark 94554971. We do not issue replacement or duplicate titles. Instead, we issue a letter certifying that the animal was titled. By way of this letter, we certify to you and anyone else that this may concern, that the wild horse with the U.S. Government's Freezemark 94554971/Signalment Key HF1ABAABB (Species: Horse Gender: Female Face Whorls: 1 Leg RF: No White Leg RH: Coronet Leg LF: No White Leg LH: No White Face Star Color: Bay) is titled, is no longer the property of the BLM, and is no longer protected under the Wild Free-Roaming Horse and Burro Act, 1971. This animal was captured from the Nevada Wild Horse Range in Nevada. The BLM issued a Certificate of Title for this animal on 11/19/1997.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This LETTER should be preserved and transferred without charge to any subsequent owner of the animal.

The Bureau of Land Management does not record transfer of the animals after the animal has been titled.
