Four Corners Mustang Challenge Humane Treatment Policy

Every animal shall be treated humanely and with dignity, respect and compassion. Any participant using abusive or excessive training techniques or being inhumane to a mustang or burro in his/her care (determined excessive or abusive by a panel assigned by the Four Corners Mustang Challenge and consisting of a panel of (and/or respected horse industry professionals) may be removed from the contest and/or all future contests and training programs

The following list includes but is not limited to examples of unacceptable behavior and training techniques:

- No horse/burro appearing to be emaciated, drawn or injured may be exhibited.
- Use of or evidence of inhumane training techniques or methods such as striking horse with objects, excessive spurring and/or excessive jerking of reins.
- Any inhumane treatment that results in wounds.

Additionally, this event promotes and encourages the following examples of sound, compassionate, and successful training techniques and mustang/burro handling methods:

- Horse/burro and trainer exhibiting solid relationship based on respect and understanding
- A calm and willing partnership between horse/burro and trainer, regardless of the obstacle or environmental challenge during competition or training phases.
- Trainer maintains a credible level of dignity for the horse/burro during all phases of training and competition.

Through my signature below, I certify that I have read and understand the Humane Treatment policy and agree to abide by these principles as a participant in this event. I also understand that should a determination be made (as outlined above) that I have violated any part of this policy, I may lose the privilege of competing at any future Four Corners Mustang Challenges and may also lose the privilege of any future adoptions or purchases of Mustang horses and/or burros.
